

Watershed, Climate Change & Biodiversity inquiry questions

a) To what extent are human beings responsible for the changes in Earth's climate and biodiversity loss in our watersheds? Explain your thinking.

b) How do fossil fuels affect the climate and our water systems? Should we keep using them? Why or why not?

c) How can people protect watersheds and slow climate change so that both humans and nature can thrive? How can we work with nature instead of against it?

This resource is part of the BC Urban Streams & Watersheds lesson plans, assembled in 2025. Learn more and download additional resources at www.engagewithnbs.ca/for-schools

This material is available to reuse and adapt in your classroom.

